4. Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have determined the matters prescribed below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report.

Key Audit Matter	How our audit addressed the key audit matter
Identification of Non-performing advances (NPA) and provisioning on advances: The Gross Advance constitutes 67.88% of the Bank's Total Assets and Agriculture advances constitute 69.93% of the Total Advances. These consists of major portion of KCC, Crop Loans and other Allied activities. These are further categorized as secured by Tangible assets (including advances against Book Debts), and Unsecured advances. The Reserve Bank of India ('RBI') has prescribed the 'Prudential Norms on Income Recognition, Asset Classification and Provisioning' in respect of advances for banks ('IRACP Norms') to the extent applicable to RRBs. NABARD is also, from time to time, issued guidelines for RRB's in these matters. The identification of performing and non-performing advances (including advances restructured under applicable IRACP Norms) involves establishment of proper mechanism and the Bank is required to apply significant degree of judgement to identify and determine the amount of provision required against each advance applying both quantitative as well as qualitative factors prescribed by the regulations. The Bank Accounts for all the transactions related to Advances in its core BANKING Solutions (CBS) Which also identifies whether the advance as are performing or Non-performing and does the NPA classification. Significant judgements and estimates for NPA identification and provisioning could give rise to material misstatements on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Completeness and timing of recognition of non-performing assets in accordance with criteria as per IRACP norms; 	Our approach and procedures for auditing the classification of advances, identification of non-performing advances, income recognition, and provision on advances was made with reference to RBI and NABARD Circulars/guidelines and internal policies and procedure of the Bank in line with IRAC norms, which included the following steps: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> We examined and assessed the bank's accounting policies for identifying non-performing assets (NPAs) and making provisions, ensuring compliance with the IRACP norms prescribed by the Reserve Bank of India (RBI). We reviewed and tested the design and effectiveness of key controls, including system-based automated controls, for identifying and provisioning NPA accounts, based on the extant guidelines on IRACP laid down by the RBI/NABARD. We conducted additional procedures to identify NPAs, which included: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Testing exception reports generated by the bank's application systems where advances are recorded. Analyzing accounts reported by the bank as Special Mention Accounts (SMA) to identify potential stress. Reviewing borrower account statements, and other related information of the borrowers selected based on quantitative and qualitative risk factors. Scrutiny of the minutes of the internal Audit report, Credit Monitoring and Recovery and Risk management committee and performing enquires with the credit and risk management departments to ascertain if there were indicators of stress or an occurrence of an event of default in a loan account or any products. Considering audit reports and memorandum of changes issued by statutory branch auditors. Considering the NABARD Annual Financial Report on the Bank, the Bank's response to the observations and other communication with RBI/NABARD during the year.

- Measurement of the provision for non-performing assets based on loan exposure, ageing and classification of the loan, realizable value of security;
- Appropriate reversal of unrealized income on the NPAs.

Since the classification of advances, identification of NPAs and creation of provision on advances (including additional provisions on restructured advances under applicable IRACP Norms) and income recognition on advances:

- Requires proper control mechanism and significant level of estimation by the Bank;
- Has significant impact on the overall financial statements of the Bank;

We have ascertained this area as a Key Audit Matter.

- g) Reviewing internal audit, systems audit, credit audit, and concurrent audit reports in accordance with the bank's policies and procedures.
- h) Examining a sample of advances, including stressed or restructured advances, to assess compliance with the RBI's Master Circulars/Guidelines.

The valuation of each category of the aforesaid securities is to be done as per the

method prescribed in the circulars and directives issued by RBI/ NABARD which involves collection of data / information from various sources. Considering the complexities and extent of judgement involved in the valuation of investments and identification of NPI, and degree of regulatory focus and over all significance to the financial result of the Bank, this has been identified as Key Audit Matter.	and directions by reforming valuation for each category of security. Samples were selected after ensuring that all the categories of investments (based on the nature of security) were covered in the sample. d) We carried out substantive audit procedure to recompute independently the provision to be maintained in accordance with the circulars and directives of the RBI. Accordingly, we have selected samples from the investments of each category and tested for NPIs as per RBI guidelines and recomputed the provision to be maintained in accordance with the RBI circulars for those selected samples of NPIs.
Information Technology ("IT") Systems and Controls The Bank highly relies on information systems, including automated controls, for its key financial accounting and reporting processes. However, this dependence poses a risk that deficiencies in the IT control environment could lead to significant misstatements in the financial accounting and reporting records. Given the Bank's use of multiple systems for overall financial reporting and the high volume of daily transactions recorded across various locations, protecting the integrity of the Bank's systems and data has become increasingly challenging. Cybersecurity risks have emerged as a significant concern in recent periods. Considering the pervasive and intricate nature of the IT environment, as well as its critical role in ensuring accurate and timely financial reporting, we have identified this area as a Key Audit Matter.	As part of our audit procedures for reviewing the Bank's IT systems and related controls for financial reporting, we undertook the following actions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – We conducted testing to evaluate the design and effectiveness of the Bank's IT access controls over critical information systems used for financial reporting. – We performed sample testing of IT general controls, including logical access, change management, and aspects of IT operational controls. This involved reviewing and authorizing access requests to systems and inspecting requests for changes to systems for approval and authorization. We also considered the control environment related to interfaces, configuration, and other application layer controls that were identified as crucial for our audit. – We examined the Bank's controls pertaining to the prevention of unauthorized opening and operations in internal/office accounts. – Furthermore, we tested the design and operating effectiveness of specific automated controls that were identified as key internal financial controls for financial reporting. Whenever deficiencies were identified, we sought explanations regarding compensating controls or performed alternative audit procedures. Additionally, we took into account any changes made to the IT landscape during the audit period that had a significant impact on financial reporting and conducted testing accordingly.-

Evaluation of litigations included in Contingent Liabilities

Considerable management judgment is necessary to determine the existence of obligations and whether provisions should be recognized on the reporting date, in accordance with the accounting criteria specified in Accounting Standard 29 - Provisions, Contingent Liabilities, and Contingent Assets (AS 29), or whether they should be disclosed as contingent liabilities. Additionally, significant judgments are involved in measuring such obligations, with the following being the most significant:

- Assessment of liability: Determining whether the likelihood of outflows related to identified material matters is probable and can be reliably estimated requires judgment.
- Adequacy of provisions: The appropriateness of assumptions and judgments utilized in estimating significant provisions is a key consideration.
- Adequacy of disclosures: Ensuring that provisions for liabilities and charges, as well as contingent liabilities, are appropriately disclosed.

The Bank's assessment is informed by factual information, their own judgment, experience, and advice from legal and independent tax consultants, as deemed necessary.

Given that the assessment of these ongoing litigations entails a significant level of judgment in interpreting the law, we have identified this as a key audit matter.

Our Audit procedures with respect to this matter included:

Testing the design and operating effectiveness of the Bank's key controls over the estimation, monitoring and disclosure of provisions and contingent liabilities.

Our substantive audit procedures included and were not limited to the following:

- Obtaining an understanding of internal controls relevant to the identification of litigations and legal cases to be reported;
- Obtained list of cases / matters in respect of which litigations were outstanding as at reporting date;
- Examining recent orders and/or communication received from various tax authorities/ judicial forums and follow up action thereon;
- Evaluating the merit of the subject matter under consideration with reference to the grounds presented therein and available independent legal / tax advice including opinion of the Bank's tax consultants;
- Review and analysis of evaluation of the contentions of the Bank through discussions, collection of details of the subject matter under consideration, the likely outcome and consequent potential outflows on those issues;
- Verification of disclosures related to significant litigations, taxation matters and Employee benefits liabilities in the financial statements.

The reports containing the other information as above as expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance or conclusions thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

7. Responsibilities of Management and those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

The Bank's Board of Directors is responsible for the preparation of these financial Statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the Bank in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards issued by ICAI and provisions of Regional Rural Banks Act, 1976 / Section 29 of Banking Regulation Act, 1949 and circulars and guidelines issued by Reserve Bank of India (RBI) / National Bank for Agriculture & Rural Development (NABARD) from time to time. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Bank and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Bank's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing as applicable matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Bank or to cease operations or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Management is also responsible for overseeing the Bank's financial reporting process.

8. Auditors' Responsibility for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control;

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management;
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the bank's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the bank to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the Bank to express an opinion on the financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit of the financial information of the Bank and such branches included in the financial statements, of which we are the independent auditors. For the other branches included in the financial statements, which have been audited by statutory branch auditors, such branch auditors remain responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audits carried out by them. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

- Materiality is the magnitude of the misstatements in the financial statement that, individually or aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decision of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the financial statement may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning of the scope of our audit work and evaluating the result of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatement in the financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements for the financial year ended March 31, 2025 and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

9. Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

- The Balance Sheet and the Profit and Loss Account have been drawn up in accordance with Section 29 of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949 and NABARD guidelines;
- As required by Sub Section 3 of Section 30 of the Banking Regulation Act 1949, and subsection 4 of section 19 of the Regional Rural Bank Act, 1976 and on the consideration of the reports of the statutory branch auditors as referred in paragraph 9(a) above we report that:
 - We have obtained all the information and explanations which, to the best of our knowledge and belief, were necessary for the purposes of our audit and have found them to be satisfactory;
 - The transactions of the Bank which have come to our notice have been within the powers of the Bank;
 - The returns received from the branches and offices of the Bank have been found adequate for the purposes of our audit
 - The Statement of Profit and Loss shows a true balance of profit for the year then ended

10. We further report that:

- We have sought and obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of our audit.

- b. In our opinion, proper books of account as required by law have been kept by the Bank so far as it appears from our examination of those books and proper returns adequate for the purposes of our audit have been received from branches not visited by us;
- c. The reports on the accounts of the branch offices audited by branch auditors of the Bank under section 29 of Banking Regulation Act, 1949 and section 19 of the Regional Rural Banks Act, 1976 have been sent to us and have been properly dealt with by us in preparing this report
- d. The Balance Sheet, the statement of Profit and Loss and the Statement of Cash Flows dealt with by this report are in agreement with the books of account and with the returns received from the branches not visited by us and all the Memorandum of Changes suggested by us during the course of the audit have been given effect in the financial statements. The list of MOC's is annexed to this Audit Report.

- e. In our opinion, the Balance Sheet, the Profit and Loss Account and the Statement of Cash Flows comply with the applicable accounting standards, to the extent they are not inconsistent with the accounting policies prescribed by RBI/NABARD.
